"Invite with wisdom and beautiful preaching to the way of your Lord and convince them the best way" (Al-Qur'an 16:125)

Assalam u alaikum warahmatullah e wabarakatuh!

Regarding His Guidance (SAW) in Slaughtering for Eid Al-Asha

As for his guidance in the slaughter for 'Eid Al -Asha, he never failed to slaughter for it; he would slaughter two sheep after the prayer and he informed us that one who slaughters before it has not performed the rite, it is only meat which he has presented to his family. And this is what we submit ourselves to Allah with. He ordered them to slaughter a sheep which is between six months and one year, or any other which is in its third year. It was a part of his guidance to select the sacrificial animals for 'Eid Al-Asha and to do it well and to choose the best of them, those free from defects; and he prohibited slaughtering those with torn ears or half or more of their horns broken. And he ordered that the eye and ear be examined. And he ordered that a one-eyed animal should not be slaughtered, nor one the front of which ear is cut, nor one the back of which ear is cut, nor one which ear is slit or one which ear is pierced. It was also a part of his guidance to slaughter in the prayer place, he slaughtered two horned sheep whose color was more white than black and which had been castrated, and when he faced them, he said:

I have turned my face to the One Who created the heavens and the earth in sincere submission and I am not one of those who associates partners with Allah. Verily, my prayers, my sacrifice, my life and my death are for Allah, the Lord of mankind, Who has no partners. That is what I have been ordered and I am the first of those who submits Oh, Allah! This from You and to You, from Muhammad and his people."

And he ordered the people to slaughter well when they slaughter, and he said: "Verily Allah has ordained Ihsan upon everything." And it was a part of his guidance that a sheep is sufficient for a man and his family. (Zaad Al-Maad Imam ibnu Al-Qayyim)
